CARL HUNSINGER, CMSGT, USAF (RETIRED)

PRESIDENT, MANASOTA VETERANS

Chief Master Sergeant Carl Hunsinger, USAF (retired) served nearly 31 years on active duty. Upon graduation from high school, he graduated from the Florida Police Officer Standards and Training Course and the Florida Correctional Officer's Training Institute. After three years as a civilian police officer and correctional officer, he entered the Air Force and began basic military training in June 1978. He was a career logistician and transporter with an extensive background in Vehicle Operations, Vehicle Fleet Management and software development. Chief Hunsinger served this nation around the world. He was last stationed and deployed in Southwest Asia (June 2007 – July 2008) where he was the Command Chief Master Sergeant for the 386th Air Expeditionary Wing. As the top enlisted leader, Chief Hunsinger advised the commander and senior staff on matters influencing the health, morale, welfare and effective utilization of over 19,000 assigned combat enlisted personnel in Kuwait and southern Iraq. The 386th Air Expeditionary Wing was responsible for a wide variety of missions in support of United States Air Forces Central and United States Central Command objectives including intra-theater airlift, casualty evacuation, theater internment, convoy operations, security, and combat service support for specified U.S. military units supporting all coalition forces. He was the Senior Air Force Commander's representative on advisory councils, board member of wing level enlisted promotions, special action boards, functional manager of 21 First Sergeants and the lead for all assigned Group Chief Master Sergeants. He provided coordinating actions with Joint top enlisted leaders throughout southwest Asia. He ensured combat readiness of several classified locations throughout Kuwait and Iraq with superior leadership, enlisted policies, practices and training.

Chief Hunsinger led from the front participating in many combat missions by land and air. He served a career total of 27 months in combat operations in three major deployments earning two Bronze Star Medals (one from the US Army and one from the US Air Force). Other major awards are; two Iraqi Campaign Medals, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal and the Air Force Expeditionary Ribbon with Gold Border, seven Meritorious Service Medals and six Air Force Commendation Medals. In addition; the US Army awarded him the 1st Infantry Division and 25th Infantry Division patches with orders. In an earlier 2004-2005 deployment to Mosul Iraq, the US Army selected Chief Hunsinger as their acting 17 Battalion Command Sergeant Major making him their first ever Air Force E-9 to fill this position in direct combat. He performed duties as the Army's on-scene commander with the quick response and recovery forces for post attacks both inside and outside the wire.
